

Bachelor of Arts in Ministry Leadership

Students who pursue a degree in ministry leadership want to make a difference in their church or organization. Through our partnership with Northwest, our goal is to provide a high-quality, biblically sound education for working adults who want to have an impact in their community. So, whether you're working full time or taking care of the family at home, your nine-to-five doesn't have to keep you from touching others for eternity.

Benefits of a Ministry Leadership Degree

Graduates of this degree program will be equipped to:

- Demonstrate biblical literacy and exegetical skills
- Present a carefully reasoned, coherent Christian worldview
- Lead a life of integrity, compassion, service, and self-sacrifice based on the Christ-centered application of biblical truth
- Communicate the gospel through effective strategies of evangelism, teaching, preaching, and discipleship
- Exhibit habits of learning through experience, self-reflection, critical thinking, sensitivity toward diversity, and personal prayer
- Comprehend and apply effective leadership, organizational, and interpersonal skills
- Understand and utilize media, computing resources, and basic financial data
- Show evidence of confidence, understanding, and skill in leading worship, administering ordinances of the church, caring for the suffering, and leading other ministry activities of encouragement and comfort
